

LOS ALAMOS MASTER GARDENERS
Meeting Minutes taken by Judy Hoffman
From meeting on October 5, 2023, at 6:30 pm

Location: White Rock Library

Announcements:

- 1) Los Alamos Co-Op Harvest Festival Oct 14 12-4 95 Entrada Dr., Los Alamos, LAMG had a presence last year;
  - if anyone is interested in providing support for a LAMG table, please let KokHeong and Carolyn know.
- 2) The Extension Office has both LAMG flyers and the 2024 Master Gardener Intern Class flyers

No Reports:

Program: Olivia Carril gave a very informative program about bees. Her wealth of knowledge about native bees was impressive. She concluded with answering lots of questions. As we put our flower and vegetable gardens to bed for the winter think about the native bees. Some native bee species lay their eggs in the ground, while others lay their eggs in stems and other wood items.
